

CHANCELLOR KAPP RESIGNES IN FAVOR OF PRESIDENT EBERT SAYS LONDON CORRESPONDENT

Head of New Government and Early Return of Ebert Ministry to Berlin Has Been Predicted as the Prestige of Former Ruler Has Become Manifested

HINDENBURG IS KEY TO SITUATION

Field Marshal, According to Cologne Dispatches, Advised Kapp to Withdraw from His Position and Call on Populace for Some New Elections

London, March 16.—Chancellor Kapp, head of the government at Berlin, has resigned in favor of President Ebert, says the Berlin correspondent of the London Times, under date of Tuesday evening. Efforts to form a Kapp ministry have been abandoned.

KAPP MINISTRY FINDS ITSELF INSECURE.
Berlin, March 16.—Reliable information indicates that the Kapp government is beginning to find its tenure of office very insecure. It is confirmed that negotiations are proceeding between the Kapp and Ebert governments. It is said the new government officials seem mainly concerned about the prospects of amnesty. It is reported that a large number of Reichswehr officers at a meeting in Berlin today reaffirmed their allegiance to the old government.

SUPPORT CHANCELLOR ANTICIPATED IS LACKING.
Berlin, March 16.—The new Kapp government at Berlin has not found support it had looked for and while it holds on the administration is growing weaker, the strength of President Ebert and his supporters, including the members of the national assembly at Stuttgart has increased materially. If all reports are to be believed, so that his return to Berlin is early date is confidently predicted in some quarters.

Dr. Wolfgang Kapp has virtually reached the end of his resources, as far as concerns himself as head of the revolutionary movement, is evident by the fact that he is said to have been ready to retire since Saturday was persuaded by Colonel Bauer, leader of the Royalist party, Major General Ludendorff to remain.

General Groener, the Prussian war minister, the Frankfurter Zeitung says, has telegraphed to Field Marshal von Hindenburg that in his opinion the Kapp-von Luetwitz government is an impossible one whether in the viewpoint of home affairs or in the viewpoint of foreign affairs. Groener is quoted as saying that von Hindenburg is the man who would suffice to bring back order.

General Groener Offers Services.
General Groener is also credited with having sent a message to President Ebert offering to act as mediator between him and von Hindenburg with a view to restoring constitutionalism.

von Hindenburg has written to Kapp advising him to withdraw from position if Cologne dispatches are to be believed, and has advised President Ebert to call for new elections. As far, however, what the constitutional president intends to do is known in Berlin, but the national assembly will probably decide his attitude. Those who optimistically believed Ebert might enter into negotiations with the Berlin government were disappointed to learn today that no negotiations are under way.

The counter revolution has triumphed. It is through you that the freedom of the working classes, the revolution and the cause of Socialism must be defended to the last man and the last woman.

"Every worker and every official in this hour of destiny must recognize there is only one solution, namely, a general strike along the whole front."

"Workmen, workwomen and officials! Away with your distinctions! Be united under the standard of revolutionary Socialism! You have nothing to lose except your chains."

REPORT 400 PERSONS DEAD IN BOMBARDMENT OF KIEL
London, March 16.—Four hundred persons are reported to have been killed and many persons wounded in a bombardment of Kiel by the German cruiser Eckernforde, says a Central News dispatch from Copenhagen quoting the Ekstrabaadets Kiel correspondent.

The dispatch adds that some quarters of the town were destroyed by the bombardment. The cruiser is said to have directed its fire especially against the quarters of the workmen who are opposed to the Kapp government.

In addition to the report of the bombardment of Kiel, detailed reports have been received of severe fighting there. The Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent under date of Monday says that the communists seized the arsenal, six officers and a number of soldiers being killed. Later a marine brigade supporting the Kapp government retook the arsenal where about 200 are reported to have been killed.

Berlin, March 16.—Maximilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft, was arrested today.

DE VALERA TO REVIEW NEW YORK IRISH FETE

Governor Smith Also Will Witness St. Patrick Day Celebration in Metropolis

New York, March 16.—Virtually every Irish-American society in Greater New York formed in 45 battalions and marching in ranks of eight will pass in review before Eamonn De Valera "provisional president of the Irish republic," in a St. Patrick's day parade here tomorrow. The Irish tri-colors—green, white and orange—will wave with the American flag at the head of the marching column.

The One Hundredth and Sixty-Fifth New York regiment, "the old fighting Irish Sixty-Ninth" in command of Colonel J. Phelan, has been accorded the place of honor at the head of the procession.

The parade route is up Fifth avenue past a reviewing stand in front of St. Patrick's cathedral in which President De Valera, Governor Smith, Archbishop Hays, former Governor Martin Glynn, Mayor Hylan and others will review the marchers. It is estimated that approximately 25,000 men, women and children will march.

New York, March 16.—Eamonn De Valera, president of the Irish republic, tonight issued a St. Patrick's day proclamation to the Sons and Daughters of the Gaelic, "urging them" to show the world the right of moral beauty and to teach mankind peace and happiness in keeping the law of love.

Never before have the scattered children of Aaron had such opportunity for noble service, said the proclamation. Today you can serve not only Ireland, but the world. A cruel war and a more cruel peace have shattered the generous soul. Apathy marks the high minded and heartless cynicism points the way of selfishness.

FEELS EFFECTS OF LOW PAY

Public Service Is Handicapped by Inadequate Force of Specialists

Washington, March 16.—Low pay has depleted the professional personnel of the public health service, Surgeon General Cummings stated today. The force is entirely inadequate for the task of caring for former soldiers in addition to its regular work.

"We are today caring for 12,000 discharged soldiers, sailors and marines in our hospitals with a force that is not sufficient," the surgeon general said. "We cannot get the medical personnel that is necessary for the effective operation of the hospitals. We cannot get specialists who are necessary in the care of tuberculosis patients and the mentally deranged. We cannot attract to the corps a sufficient number of highly trained surgeons to look after those who require delicate operations."

SAYS LABOR WILL UPHOLD NEW TRANSPORTATION ACT

Washington, March 16.—E. M. Jewel, acting president of the Railway department of the American Federation of Labor, assured the Interstate commerce commission today of labor's support for a thorough trial of the new transportation act. Testifying before the commission in the hearing to determine whether subordinate railroad officials are eligible to appointment on the railway labor board, Mr. Jewel declared that the 15 organizations for which he spoke were ready to assist in the bill's application. Railroad labor, he said, felt that its duty was to be "helpful" at all times in giving the law a fair and reasonable trial.

LEDOUX KNOCKS OUT COULON

Paris, March 16.—Charles Ledoux, bantam weight champion of Europe, tonight knocked out Johnny Coulon, the former American champion, in the sixth round. Coulon, who was only a shadow of his former self, was completely outclassed by the Frenchman but he provided, according to the sporting writers, the long awaited defeat of an American boxer in a Paris ring, while the spectators howled with glee.

MENTAL DEFECTIVES LACK CARE

New York, March 16.—At least 40,000 mental defectives in New York state are outside of institutions, while the state is caring for only 4,000, according to the first annual report of the state commission for mental defectives submitted to the legislature and made public here today by its chairman, Dr. Pearce Bailey.

BINGHAMTON'S POPULATION.

Washington, March 16.—Census returns made public tonight include Binghamton, N. Y., $5,840; increase, 18.55, or 23.9 per cent.

REPUBLICANS SETTLE ON NEW RESERVATION

Text Embodies General Declaration of International Policy Acceptable to the United States

Washington, March 16.—A general declaration of international policy under which the United States would view with "grave concern" any further upheaval threatening the peace and freedom of Europe, was agreed on by Republican senate leaders today and presented as a new reservation to the peace treaty.

Intended to replace the more definite pledges of Article X, the reservation is to be pressed in the senate as the farthest step the Republican leaders are willing to go toward abandonment of American isolation and participation in European conflicts. Its text follows:

"It shall be the declared policy of this government that the freedom and peace of Europe being again threatened by any power or combination of powers, the United States will regard such a situation with grave concern, and will consider what, if any, action it will take in the premises."

Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin drafted the reservation in consultation with other Republican leaders and introduced it in the senate at the end of a day of debate on the Irish question which delayed action and blocked the plan to set a day for a final vote on the treaty ratification. It generally was predicted tonight, however, that discussion of the remaining issues of the treaty controversy soon would spend itself and that the ratification roll call would come Friday or Saturday.

Not many Democrats have had an opportunity tonight to study the new Republican proposal and it was uncertain how much support it would command from that side of the chamber. Some senators predicted, however, that it might have the effect of softening the resentment of the administration over the Republican Article X reservation and winning over enough more Democratic votes to ratify the treaty.

ALLEGES ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE PAYING FEDERAL INCOME TAX

Newark, N. J., March 16.—Richard V. Lindabury, counsel for the Francisco Sugar company, a New Jersey corporation, admitted in the court of chancery here today that the company proposed to leave its assets to a Cuban corporation in order to escape payment of federal income and excess profit taxes amounting annually to approximately $1,000,000.

The lawyer made this admission during a hearing on one suit brought by William H. Allen, of Brooklyn, a stock broker, to prevent the company from taking the proposed action. Allen, who declared he himself would lose $15,000 a year if he won his suit, set forth through his attorneys that "it is a scheme against public policy."

GENERAL WOOD GETS LEAVE TO CONDUCT HIS CAMPAIGN

Washington, March 16.—Major General Leonard Wood today asked for and was granted a two months' leave of absence to conduct his campaign for the Republican nomination for president.

General Wood's leave of absence will begin on March 20 and consequently will expire 15 days before the opening of the Republican national convention at Chicago on June 8.

In announcing the granting of the leave today Secretary Baker said General Wood would be permitted to wear civilian clothes during his leave if he so desired.

New York, March 16.—Approval of the plan for co-operative denominational action to remedy present unsettled world conditions, as outlined in the program of the interchurch world movement, was expressed here today in reports made to the conference that that body by representatives of all churches participating in the deliberations. The conference which ended today was attended by approximately 1,000 ministers from this state and New Jersey.

DRYS MATCH WITS WITH WET FORCES

Joint State Legislative Hearing on Enforcement Measure Develops Real Fight

ATTACK VOLSTEAD ACT

Contention That One-Half of One Percent Beer is an Intoxicant Deemed an Error

Albany, March 16.—Drys and wets clashed for more than four hours at the capitol today at a hearing before a joint legislative committee on the Thompson-Slacker and Mullin-Gage prohibition enforcement measures.

Representatives of the brewing interests, New York State Federation of Labor, and the Manufacturers and Dealers League of the state lined up against those of the Anti Saloon league which framed the Thompson-Slacker measure, Woman's Christian Temperance union, International Reform union, New York Civic league and others, in opposing the measure.

The fight centered on the Thompson-Slacker bill, the Mullin-Gage bill being mentioned by only one or two of the speakers. The reason was explained by William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti Saloon league, who said that the dry forces had been informed because of the patronage that would go with the Mullin-Gage bill (this measure places the enforcement in the hands of the state excise commissioner) the governor would not sign it.

The Thompson-Slacker bill is virtually the same as the Volstead federal law adopted to state conditions.

William H. Hirst, who has appeared in previous years as attorney for the brewing interests, was the leader of the opposition. He asserted his side did not ask nullification, but did ask that the legislature exercise its right and authority to define "intoxicating liquors." "The legislature," he said, "will not do its duty and exercise the concurrent powers granted it under the 18th amendment if it enacts either bill. A bill like the Volstead act or the measure before the hearing that defines one half of one percent of alcohol as intoxicating writes an error and falsehood into the law. The state of New York is not bound by the Volstead act if it does not concur in its enforcement."

Defends "War Time Beer."

William D. Guthrie, who said he spoke for the United States Brewers' association, submitted affidavits, which, he said, plainly showed that 2-75 percent beer, or "war time beer" is not intoxicating. The wets, he asserted, stand on the constitution of the United States, which "prohibits intoxicating liquors, but not alcoholic beverages."

James P. Holland, president of the New York state federation of labor, argued against the bill, as did William H. Brady, who represented the manufacturers and farmers' league which employs 300,000 persons. "I find," he said, "that the employees feel dissatisfied and that there is a great deal of unrest as the result of prohibition."

John Sullivan, president of the International Brewery Worker's association, representing 100,000 men, declared that prohibition "makes criminals out of otherwise law-abiding citizens."

The principal arguments in support of the Thompson-Slacker measure were made by Mrs. Anderson, Wayne D. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, and Mrs. Ella Boole of the Women's Christian Temperance union.

Says Whiskey is Also Sought.

Mr. Anderson declared that he represented about 4,000 churches in the state that did not send representatives to the hearing.

"The constituency represented by the churches," he declared, "is unqualifiedly and overwhelmingly in favor of the passage of the Thompson-Slacker bill which provides for the enactment by New York of the National enforcement law which is already the supreme law of the land, including New York."

Mr. Wheeler declared that the state legislature has no constitutional right to license or legalize beverage beer or prohibition wine containing more than is defined in the federal prohibition code.

"To adopt conflicting legislation will mislead the uninformed into the belief that they may sell liquors prohibited by the federal government," he said.

Mrs. Boole in urging favorable action, asserted that the opposition say they want beer and wine, but that they mean "whiskey and saloons as well."

Colonel Ransom H. Gillette, Republican assemblyman from Columbia county, asked permission to address the hearing. He urged the committee to defer action on the bills until such time as the public can be heard from, adding that "today we have been given the Anti-Saloon league's and the brewer's views on the question."

FIFTY PER CENT DIVIDEND.
Pittsburg, Pa., March 16.—Directors of the Crucible Steel company of America late today declared a stock dividend of 50 per cent payable in the common stock of the company on April 15. It is the first important corporation to take such action since the decision of the United States supreme court affecting dividends.

Give Occupation Army Full Field Equipment

Coblenz, March 16.—The American army of occupation, numbering 18,000 men is being issued full field equipment under orders issued before the German revolution. There has been no movement, however, to reinforce any provision or any military activities except those concerned with policing the occupied territory.

The total allied forces along the Rhine are estimated at slightly more than 100,000 men.

SENATE CALLS COLBY TO SOLVE ITS DOUBTS

Nominee for Secretary of State Will Appear Before Foreign Relations Body Thursday

Washington, March 16.—Eunice Colby, nominated by President Wilson to be secretary of state, accepted an invitation today to appear Thursday before the senate foreign relations committee to make a statement regarding certain questions which are delaying its confirmation.

The committee's action is understood to have been taken by common consent of Republican and Democratic members as a result of information gathered in secret hearings on Mr. Colby's qualifications to head the state department. The nature of this information was not divulged, however, and it was said the statements to be made by him would be regarded in the same confidence.

A transcript of all the testimony taken by the committee, including that given today by Herbert Parsons, a New York lawyer, is said to have been sent to Mr. Colby along with the committee's invitation. The nominee at first had been invited to appear today, but sent word that he found it impossible to reach Washington.

The nomination has been awaiting action since February 25, and five witnesses, including Brigadier General Churchill, chief of army intelligence, have been heard.

PLAN JOINT MANEUVER FOR TWO NAVAL FLEETS

Following Practice, Nation's Full Sea Fighting Force Will Visit Pacific Ports

Washington, March 16.—The Pacific and Atlantic fleets will meet off the Pacific coast of Panama next January in their joint maneuvers designed to keep the navy "on its toes" during peace times.

This was decided today at a conference between Secretary Daniels and Admirals Rodman and Wilson, the fleet commanders. It is practically certain, however, that a battle between the fleets, approaching as nearly as possible actual warfare, will be arranged. It may also serve as an actual test of the Panama canal as an element of naval strategy.

After the practice is at an end, the combined fleet will visit the principal Pacific coast ports of the United States so as to give the people there an opportunity to see the nation's full naval fighting force. It will be the first time that the entire Pacific strength has visited the Pacific coast since the Atlantic fleet made its memorable cruise around the world in 1907 and 1908.

EBERT OUSTS GENERAL MERKER COMMANDER OF SAXONY TROOPS

Stuttgart, March 16.—President Ebert and Minister of Defense Noske have suspended General Merker, commander of the troops in Saxony and turned over his command to General Mueller. President Ebert in a statement to a correspondent of the Wolff bureau, the semi-official news agency, said concerning the change:

"General Merker had no mandate from us to negotiate with the Berlin insurgents. We told a representative of the coalition party that we would maintain our demand for the unconditional withdrawal of the insurgents."

"The situation in the country is changing more and more in our favor. The insurgents have found adherents east of the Elbe and others have been recruited principally from among the old reactionaries."

President Ebert said he was certain an overwhelming majority of the German people would pronounce themselves in favor of a democracy.

Kapp's Splurge "Boyle's Trick."
The Hague, March 16.—The Berlin correspondent of the Nieuwe Rotterdamse Courant telephoned a message to his paper last night, but communication was severed before he finished his message.

"Germany is a riddle," says Kapp's undertaking, "proves increasingly to be not an achievement, but a political booby trap. The new government is seeking on all sides for support, but realizes that support is nowhere to be found. If the situation were not so serious a one . . ."

At this point communication was severed.

SAYS BOCHE LOST BIG OPPORTUNITY

Use of Battle Cruisers as Raiders Would Have Paralyzed Troop Movement—Sims

GAVE DANGER WARNING

Months Elapsed, However, Without Formation of Plans to Combat Such Menace

Washington, March 16.—Germany missed an opportunity to paralyze shipping and American troop movement to France in the summer of 1918 by not sending a battle cruiser to raid convoys, Rear Admiral Sims said today, continuing his testimony before the senate committee investigating his charges against the navy department's conduct of the war. Although the department was warned in September, 1917, of this danger, he said, it had no comprehensive plan to combat such an enemy move ten months later when the danger was imminent.

"Bluff" Would Have Worked Havoc.
The department acknowledged that it had no approved plan and said that it depended upon the European forces and upon the British grand fleet to stand off the danger until it had time to act. Admiral Sims asserted, adding that a little "bluff" on Germany's part would have worked havoc with allied transportation.

The department suggested plan after plan in the intervening months, the admiral said, all based on a wrong premise and most of which had been previously considered and rejected by the allies as unwelcome.

In August, 1918, word came that the enemy was preparing two cruisers for raiding duty, Admiral Sims said, and not until then did the department abandon its own ideas and accept his recommendations made 10 months before that battleships be assigned to protect troop ships.

He read from the cablegram accepting his plan in which the department said it was only "a temporary expedient" and did not "solve the problem of continued enemy battle cruiser activities in the Atlantic."

Fortunate Raid Was Not Attempted.
The same cable said that "no reply" had been received to a request by the department that four Japanese battle cruisers be assigned to the American Atlantic fleet for duty against raiders, and that the department desired to "know what will be the admiralty's policy as to the use of their battle cruisers for pursuit in case of the escape of an enemy battle cruiser."

The admiral said confusion as to plans at this stage of the war was an "impressive example of the deplorable absence of unity of command on the seas, a measure which the allies finally adopted on land and which made victory possible."

"Fortunately, the enemy never attempted a battle cruiser raid," said the officer. "To anyone at all familiar with the case it is, to put it mildly, disquieting to contemplate the confusion of all Atlantic shipping, naval and merchant, troop carriers and all, that would have resulted if the raid had occurred during those long drawn out negotiations between Washington and London in an attempt to reach a simple decision as to joint action."

KAPP'S INFLUENCE GONE OFFICIAL PARIS LEARNS

Paris, March 16.—Official information from Berlin today showed that the compromise reported last night as having been accepted by the Ebert government, merely constituted the conditions offered, which were refused because the independent socialists withdrew owing to dissatisfaction owing to the labor clause, while the Democrats and majority socialists would not consider replacing Gustav Noske as minister of defense, by general vote. The attitude of many officers in the Reichswehr is declared to have encouraged the old government by showing the Kapp regime to be only partially supported.

Negotiations with the view of reaching a compromise, according to advisers received here, were suspended until tomorrow.

Chancellor Kapp is reported now in Paris as having lost his influence, this being shown by his refraining from attempting to form a cabinet and announcing that he is leaving the former government officials to carry on the work of their departments. These officials are believed to favor the old government. There is, however, a militarist element determined to fight to the end for control and there is the workers' element equally determined to oppose the militarists, the government advisers indicated.

DELEGATES TO MOSCOW.

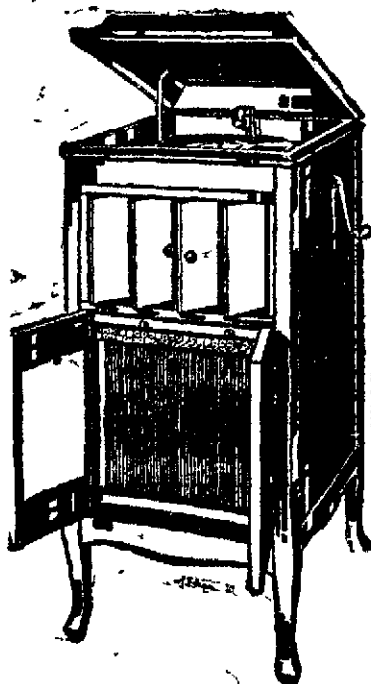

Portland, Ore., March 16.—Two delegates representing Communist Labor in America are on their way to Moscow as delegates to the third international. Victor Smith, a Russian, arrived today in the trial of Karl Oskar, Claude Hertz and Fred W. Fry, three alleged communists, on trial charged with violation of the state criminal syndicalism act. He stated that the communists had elected John Reed of Portland a delegate to the international convention in Moscow. He denied knowledge of the other delegates' names.

Sworn Statement of the Composition of the FORMULA of Nuxated Iron

It is conservatively estimated that this remarkable formula is now being used by over three million people annually. Among those who have used and strongly endorse it are many physicians who have been connected with the best hospitals and medical societies, former United States Senator and Vice Presidential nominee, Chas. A. Townsend of Minnesota; Justice J. R. McPherson, Ex-Governor of Poland and master Philist, Judge Atkinson of the United States Court of Claims at Washington; Wm. F. Chamberlain, Commissioner of the United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation at Washington, and former Health Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr, of Chicago.

Newspapers everywhere are invited to keep this statement for the benefit of their readers. It is suggested that physicians make a record of it and keep it in their offices so that they may intelligently answer questions of patients concerning it. Everybody is advised to cut it out and keep it. A copy of the actual sworn statement will be sent to anyone who desires it. It is as follows: Iron Peptonate (Special Specie Standard) Quinine (even below Sodium Chlorophosphate), U. S. P. (Monomer), Calcium Gluconate, U. S. P. (Monomer), Nux Vomica U. S. P. (Monomer), Magnesium Carbonate, U. S. P. (Monomer), P. O. C. and Cinnamon Pepton U. S. P. Calcium Carbonate Pepton U. S. P. Each dose of two tablets of Nuxated Iron contains one and one-half grains of iron, and is a most effective and safe preparation of a special specific formula, which is of opinion possesses superior qualities to any other known form of iron. By using other makes of Iron Peptonate we could have put the same quantity of actual iron in the tablets as less than one-fourth the cost to us, and by using metallic iron we could have accomplished the same thing at less than one-twelfth the cost; but by so doing we must have used certain impurities which are especially recommended to build up the nerve force and thereby increase brain power, as after-effects are said to contain phosphorus in that particular state so similar to that in which it is found in the nerve and brain cells of men.

As will be seen from the above, two important ingredients of Nuxated Iron (Iron Peptonate and Gluconate) are very expensive products as compared with most other iron salts.

Under such circumstances the temptation to adulteration and substitution by unscrupulous persons, is very great and the public is hereby warned to be careful and see every bottle is plainly labeled "Nuxated Iron" by the Dr. H. H. H. Laboratories, Paris, London and Detroit, U. S. A. At this is the only genuine article. If you have taken other forms of iron without success, this does not prove Nuxated Iron will not help you.

Nuxated Iron is not a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. It is not a secret formula, but one which is easily assimilated and put into the blood, making them black and cool the stomach. Nuxated Iron is not a secret formula, but one which is easily assimilated and put into the blood, making them black and cool the stomach. END OF GERMAN REVOLT ENLIVEN STOCK DEALS

Much of Advance Is Lost, However, on Sharp Reaction of Speculative Issues

New York, March 16. — The reported breakdown of the German revolution, causing a split rally in foreign exchange, contributed chiefly to the early strength and activity of today's irregular stock market. Much of the advance was lost, however, when some of the highly speculative issues reacted sharply.

There were indications in other quarters that the recent upturn had created an unwieldy long account and that bull pools were pressing their advantage to the point where further repressive measures by the Federal Reserve bank might be deemed advisable.

The money market reflected no signs of such a contingency, call loans declining from the opening rate of nine per cent to seven per cent in the final hour, while time funds were in slightly better supply.

Selling was broadest and reversals most severe toward the close, when reports from Washington alluded to the possibility of congressional legislation imposing a retroactive tax on the privilege of issuing stock dividends.

Much of the day's unsettlement was provoked by Crucible Steel and General Motors, which duplicated their sensational movements of recent sessions. Crucible made an early moderate gain, reacted 21 points and closed at a loss of 12½ points. Motors at one time gained over eight points, but ended at a slight loss and Texas company replaced a forenoon rise of eight points with a net decline of five points.

Other industrials, shippings and specialties followed the course of these leaders, and rails, in which improvement was moderate at best, also gave way at the active but irregular finish. Speculative rails were lower in the smaller bond dealings, but Liberty issues and international bonds ruled within a very narrow limit.

Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

Nervous, Weak and Dizzy Spells

Portsmouth, N. Y. — "For over a year I was all run-down in health from nervous weakness. Had headaches all the time and would get dizzy spells. I tried different doctors and different medicines without relief. I began to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I began taking this medicine and after using one bottle I felt a little like myself. I kept on taking it until I had taken several bottles and I am feeling fine today and doing housework for the past 6 months. I have had no trouble since, and am very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his good advice and medicine. — MRS. WILLIAM M. JOSE, 149 Cedar St., Salamanca, N. Y. — 'I am very glad to endorse Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I used it for the troubles peculiar to women when in a delicate condition and had perfectly no suffering. I am sure that this medicine is wonderfully good at this period and I gladly recommend it.' — MRS. C. J. CALLAHAN, 45 Elm St.

"DRAGGING AROUND"

Salamanca, N. Y. — I am glad to endorse Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. At one time I ran down in health and was dragging around and trying to wait on my family. I began to take the Favorite Prescription and could see the difference at once. The contents of six bottles put me on my feet and did me good. My blood, which was very poor, improved in quality. I felt better and stronger and could easily attend to my household duties. I most heartily recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription because this one did so much to raise me from weakness to good health. — I have also used Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets; they are just as recommended. — MRS. Dramatic Bit of Reconstruction Work by New Republic—Preparations for the Stamping of the Money Were Made With Great Thoroughness—All Interchange With Outside World Suspended While the Stamping Is in Progress.

A dramatic bit of reconstruction was the way Czechoslovakia changed Austrian bank notes in one stuporous week into Czechoslovakian money. One morning the country woke to find its borders closed against the outside world and carefully patrolled, while an army of officials, sprung up overnight, were ready to stamp the old imperial currency with the mark of the new republic.

By the end of the week about 8,000,000,000 crowns ($1,600,000,000) were stamped, the army of money stampers demobilized and the borders opened again.

After the organization of the republic it faced the danger of being buried under mountains of depreciated Austrian notes, says a writer in the New York Sun. These bank notes of the Austro-Hungarian bank, of course, were the money of Bohemia as well as of all other parts of the former empire at the time of the armistice. They had been issued to an amount of more than 35,000,000,000 crowns, covered by 343,000,000 crowns in gold, commercial paper, and, to the extent of about 30,000,000,000 crowns, by the certificates of indebtedness of the Austrian and the Hungarian governments.

Exchange Steadily Against Crown.

Exchange steadily went against the Austrian crown, and Czechoslovakia, where are concentrated the industries of the former empire, provided, by a law of February 25, 1919, for the differentiation of its money from other Austro-Hungarian bank notes. It was provided that all bank notes circulating in the republic should be stamped as Czechoslovakian money, and that a part of this money should be retained by the government as a forced loan.

Preparations for the stamping of the money were made with great thoroughness. Government officials, bank clerks, teachers, an imposing army of helpers, were impressed into service for the receiving and the stamping of the money. All intercourse with the outside world was suspended. Trains were stopped at the frontier, and even the roads were closed. Every precaution was taken to prevent a single outside bank note from crossing the border while the process of converting the old imperial money into a national currency progressed.

Advertisements calling in the bank notes were posted in public places and public buildings and were carried in the newspapers. The public was warned that it must within the short period prescribed present every scrap of paper money in its possession to be stamped, or that money would become valueless in Czechoslovakia.

Part Held as Force Loan.

This brought all money out. Each person who deposited unstamped bills with the government agents received a receipt therefor and later received his bills back again with the stamp thereon, minus that part that the government withheld as forced loan.

Everybody in the republic was occupied with this business while it lasted, and the matter was carried through in record time for so large and thorough attention to detail. When the last note was stamped the army which established a Czechoslovakia money went back to its ordinary jobs and the country's borders were thrown open again.

START OUT TO HANG SHERIFF

Cowboys Change Their Minds When They Meet Him.

Cow punchers in the famous Rosebud county of South Dakota, angered because an old-time range-rider was arrested by State Sheriff Shanks on the charge of peddling liquor in violation of the prohibition law, made every preparation to rope and drag the sheriff, but he stood them off with an automatic revolver.

It was during a roundup celebration at the town of White River. Cow punchers from far and near had gathered to participate in the riding and other feats.

In the crowd were a number of persons who took advantage of the occasion to peddle liquor.

Without disclosing his identity, the sheriff rounded up and arrested all the booze peddlers he could find, among them the old-time range rider. So the cow punchers started out to rescue him.

Imitation Eastern Carpets.

Carpets now sold as exact reproductions of rare eastern rugs are a tribute to modern art. Some of the most notable reproductions are those of the seventeenth century oriental carpets made for the Shah of Persia. The Khorasan rug and the famous 'Persian' rug are among the best.

WILL HEAR ALL PHASES OF PROHIBITION ISSUE

Supreme Court Will Make a Thorough Inquiry Before Ruling on Amendment's Validity

Washington, March 15 — All phases of the prohibition question will be heard by the supreme court before handing down the decision upon the validity of the prohibition amendment and the Volstead act.

Having heard arguments in the Rhode Island, Kentucky and Massachusetts cases, the court today granted the state of New Jersey the right to institute original proceedings to test the amendment. It also fixed March 29 for hearing arguments in the New Jersey proceedings on appeals by Christian Feigenbaum, a Newark, N. J., brewer, and on government appeals in injunction proceedings against the Manitowoc Products company, a Wisconsin firm.

The two appeals apply principally to the validity of the prohibition amendment insofar as it relates to the manufacture of beer, alleged to be non-intoxicating. The government won the former, but lost the latter case in the lower courts.

The court also took under advisement motion asking that arguments be heard on appeals involving interpretation of the amendment and the Volstead act docketed today from New York and San Francisco. The former appeal resulted from the denial of injunction to prevent federal agents from seizing intoxicating liquors designed for private consumption but held in storage.

In view of the multiplicity of requests for hearings, the court postponed a two weeks' recess planned to begin March 29.

LAMENTS PASSING OF RUSSET

New England Journal Voices Regret That Famous Apple Is Becoming Increasingly Scarce.

The russet apple seems to be in a fair way to extinction. It used to be the commonest of our New England apples, but it is seldom seen nowadays. In Rhode Island the principal varieties are the Baldwin and greening—both fine apples, easy to sell and easy to "keep," fine of color and flavor. But there is room for the russet, too, and it would be a great pity if it should continue to be neglected by so many growers.

There is no other apple that has just the russet tang. It somehow embodies the pungent quality of New England life—its spice, its juice and its humor. It is not so showy an apple as some of its crimson, green and yellow competitors, yet there is nothing handsomer in the apple kingdom after all than a ripe russet, brown and yellow commingling on its smooth surface, together with a faint blush of red.

Perhaps there are localities where the russet flourishes as of old, but it is out of fashion in this neighborhood. Let its friends arise in its behalf, and see that it does not wholly disappear. Why not a Russet society, systematically bent on its preservation? There have been organized movements for less worthy causes.

Apple lovers with only small tracts of ground might at least pledge themselves to set out one russet tree. A bearing apple tree is as good as money in the bank. — Providence Journal.

The After Effects
of Pneumonia

This is No. 2 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

Pneumonia attacks the air cells of the lungs. An inflammation is set up and matter is thrown off which causes the air cells to solidify, thus preventing the natural flow of blood thru the lungs. This "backing up" of the blood causes the heart to pump harder, just as stepping on these increases the water pressure. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

After recovery the lungs are filled with a mass of wreckage—the debris of the battle—which must be gotten rid of by a process known as resolution. Frequently, inflamed spots remain, congestion persists, cough hangs on, and the last exposure brings on a cold that is hard to get rid of. If neglected, such damaged air passages may easily develop serious disease of the lungs.

Such cases should always come under a physician's care and frequent examinations should be made to see that nature is properly continuing the rebuilding process.

Nightly applications of Vick's VapoRub will aid nature in this work. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vick Chemical Company, 232 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

FROM AN EXPERT'S STANDPOINT

Music Is Theme of Interesting and Comprehensive Paper Read by James Keeton Jr. Last Evening Before Fortnightly Club—Ancient and Medieval Music, the Tune Masters and "Hag Time."

In a series of papers of exceptional interest and variety read the present winter before the Fortnightly club, one of the most thoughtful and learned expositions of its theme was that read last evening at the second March meeting, which was held at the home of Dr. A. H. Brownell on Main street. The author was James Keeton Jr., and the general subject of his address was "Music"—a subject which natural predilection and years of study with the best masters, he was three and a half years in Europe—qualifies him admirably to speak upon.

Beginning with the earliest recorded forms of music, among them the Egyptian, Hebrew, East Indian, and Chinese, Mr. Keeton came to the Greek, which was in fact the art upon which our own was founded, since it passed almost unchanged into the Christian era and formed the basis of the Roman church song, which progressed still further and by definite steps to our present musical system. His description of the Greek system, while necessarily technical, was of genuine interest and clearly showed to those familiar with the modern art, the successive modifications of the tonal system: until three forms of tone-genera were evolved—the Dittonic, the Chromatic and the Enharmonic, these terms applying to the different changes within the tetra-chord.

From the Greek system Mr. Keeton proceeded to discussion of the music of the early Christian era, when schools were organized for the instruction of singers in permitted church forms, Ambrose, Gregory—the Gregorian chant has come down through the ages, and others furthered musical development to the time of Luther, coincident with whose reform in religion came also a great reform in music. His "Spiritual Song Booklet" of the date of 1524 contained not less than 43 songs arranged for four voices, in some of which for the first time the melody was carried by the upper voice, Luther, ignoring the Gregorian chants, used the music of secular folk songs, set to religious words in order to encourage congregational singing.

Space does not avail to give the interesting summary of the progress of the divine art to the present time—an art which, he said, "has existed since the world began. There is music in everything. It is interwoven in our daily toil, our pleasures and our sorrows. Song has ever been a close companion to labor; it can produce any effect desired and can create its own atmosphere. It has a wonderful power and is the greatest of gifts."

Mr. Keeton referred also to the great influence of music in the home, in that it helps to develop the finest things in the child; and in conclusion he urged that its study should be encouraged in order that the student knowing good music from bad should be able to distinguish between the common-charactered "rag time," the words to which are often vile beyond description, and those better forms of melody which live forever, and the more heard are the more loved and appreciated. In the days to come he predicted that the great musical organizations in the larger cities will come to be features also in the general life of the country, so that all towns, large and small, will be represented. As we advance in music, this so-called "rag time" will be scorned in the same manner as poor literature or anything else held to be ordinary or commonplace.

Following the paper there was the usual interesting discussion generously participated in by all present; and the later period of discussion was prolonged over the coffee and cigars until 11 brought the fixed hour of adjournment. The paper was heard with the closest attention, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

HOLY CITY NOW FORGOTTEN

Established by Mormons on Island in Lake Michigan. It Was of Considerable Importance.

The Wisconsin State Historical society is preparing a history of the Mormons who settled in and around the state during the middle of the nineteenth century. The history will contain much new material concerning the early Mormons who settled in Illinois and built their sacred city of Nauvoo, just above Keokuk.

After the death of Joseph Smith, leader of the Mormons, in 1844, one of the claimants to the succession was James J. Strang of Burlington, Wis., who was converted to Mormonism in 1843 by missionaries who came to Burlington. Strang soon gained a strong following and established a holy city at Vore, where his followers made their headquarters, sent out missionaries and became successful rivals to the Brigham Young movement in Utah.

About 1849 Strang moved his followers to Beaver Island in Lake Michigan, where he built a new sacred city, and had his headquarters from 1849 to 1856. The city of St. James was the most important between Detroit and Milwaukee. Strang met death at the hands of two of his followers. He left no successor, and the Gentiles, profiting by the confusion, descended on his domain and looted it. The inhabitants were forced to leave with such of their possessions as they could carry, and were deported by boat to Chicago and Milwaukee. The church built up by Strang was thus destroyed. It is estimated that of this branch of the Mormons less than two hundred now remain.

SUGAR FROM TREE AND FIELD

Years Ago People Got Sweetening Material From the Maple and the Watermelon.

As long ago as 1781 Dr. Benjamin Rush put before the Philosophical society of Philadelphia an earnest proposal to use maple sugar, pointing out that "for a great number of years many hundred private families in New York and Pennsylvania have supplied themselves plentifully with this sugar during the whole year."

The year before that the United States had bought over 17,000,000 pounds of brown sugar, and more than 200,000 pounds of other varieties from the West Indies. Seven years after Doctor Rush made his appeal the brown sugar importation amounted to nearly 67,000,000 pounds, and the last sugar exceeded 20,500,000 pounds. At that time somebody in Philadelphia succeeded in obtaining sugar from watermelons, getting half a pint of syrup by gradually boiling the strained pulp and juice of a melon that weighed 14 pounds. This led J. R. Bordley, an agricultural writer, to compute in a book published in 1801 that an acre of watermelons would yield $143 worth of syrup.

Big Money for Perfect Potatoes.

The perfect potato, which resists blight and other "spud" diseases, has been developed, according to Samuel Ryder, head of a well-known English seed firm.

He refused to give the name of the hybridist, but said he paid him $12,000 for seed potatoes which wouldn't fill a peck measure.

"We have bought up all the hybridized seed of this expert," said Ryder. "The average potato yield in 1918 was four tons per acre in England. With the new seed, six pounds per foot, or 32 tons per acre, can be produced. The full results of the perfect potato may not be reaped for two or three years."

THE METRIC SYSTEM

Of late the over-circulated press
of the country has had its regular quota augmented to a considerable extent by letters and papers from the World Trade Club of San Francisco,
Cal., which is urging with increasing vehemence the universal adoption of the metric system of weights and measures in the United States.

There is unquestionably much force
in the arguments of the metricists;
but on the other hand there is cogent
reasoning back of the opponents of the scheme. They point out that if the metric system is to be adopted, it will mean great confusion in all existing standards of the country. All grain is measured by the bushel, but the
metric system, whose unit is the liter,
or .88 of a quart, would not in any way conform to the existing standard.
The unit of measure is the meter,
which equals 39.37 inches, and no even subdivision of it is either foot or inch. In weights the hectogram, which is the nearest available common-use measure of weight is 3.53
ounces.

To change at this time, when the country is having all it can do to get
on its feet again, would necessitate a complete change in all units of measurement, weights and capacity, new bags for grain, new machinery and
new tools, new scales in every store,
new measuring sticks in every store.
It might be that in the end a system
uniform with that of France would be a good thing, but to undertake it now
would entail such expense and confusion
as would not seem to be warranted
in a distracted world, and certainly not unless Great Britain also would conform to the proposed plan.

ONE'S CIVIC DUTY.

Recently considerable criticism has been made of State Comptroller Travis
because he has refused to make certain appointments in his department
of government which were backed by the Civil Service Reform league. In reply to these criticisms Mr. Travis
has written an open letter to the secretary of that organization of super-erogation, in which among other things he takes up the case of one Mr.
Armour, whom the league apparently desired to have appointed to a $4,000
position. Mr. Armour, he states, is clean and upright, but he does not vote, and he has informed the comptroller that his conscience tells him
he is right in avoiding and not mixing
up with such things as voting on election day. For this reason Mr. Travis has withheld the $4,000 job.

The public-at-large will approve the course of the comptroller. If a man is not sufficiently public-spirited to vote,
then it may safely be concluded that he is not a man qualified in every respect to hold official position, since
he lacks a distinct essential of good-citizenship. How can he be expected to perform public duties with fidelity
and courage if he does not care enough
about the government which he is asking for a job to vote?

THE SHIRLEY POPPY.

A resolution lately adopted by the American legion post at Tacoma,
Wash., urges the adoption of the Shirley poppy as the memorial flower of the legion. Copies of the resolution have been sent to the headquarters of the legion, and these in turn have been sent to the various local posts and to the press of the country.

There is something appropriate in
the adoption of the poppy as the legion flower. "In Flanders Fields the Poppies Grow," is as much as "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," was for the rebellion, the distinctive great
and memorable poem of the world
war. The only objection, if indeed objection it be, is that the resolutions
would provide that all members of the legion wear a red poppy as a flower
of memory on Memorial day this year
and every year thereafter. The poppy,
being an annual, sown or self-sown
from seed each season, is hardly early enough to make a display or even to be obtainable in fair quantities on Memorial day this year in these latitudes. Still, once it is adopted, the greenhouses may be trusted to supply
the demand for early blossoms, and
on graves and about monuments
throughout the year the poppy would be a most appropriate flower of memory.

PRESS AND PUBLIC OPINION

Making the Majority Really Rule.
Chicago has had her first election on
the plan familiar in Europe for a generation, the plan requiring a candidate to receive a majority of the votes
cast before he can be declared elected.
In 26 wards this majority was secured.
In nine, there will have to be another
election, at which the two candidates
receiving the highest vote will compete.

From 1866 to the present time, this country has had 16 presidential elections. At only seven of these did the successful candidate receive a majority of the popular vote. In seven other elections the victor won by a plurality only, and in two, thanks to our electoral college system, the man who got the largest number of votes was defeated. Tilden, in 1876 got 250,000
more votes than Hayes. Cleveland in 1888 got 98,000 more votes than Harrison; yet Hayes and Harrison won. —

Dempsy the Evader.

Jack Dempsey has been indicted on

What Turkey Says About Herself.

The Turks have no desire to mingle
in world politics. We mean that England must open up a new era of peace
in the Near East. If England thinks
her own safety depends on ruining Turkey, she is wrong. The Turks,
since the armistice, have not followed
an anti-English policy. The Times
has written some violent articles
against us, but on the other hand the only means of preventing the descent
of the Bolsheviks on the Black Sea
and of establishing a lasting peace in the Orient seems to be the maintenance of a strong Turkey. — [Tasvir
i Fikir, Constantinople.]

Candy for Breakfast.

New York city hotel and restaurant
proprietors say they are having numerous calls for candy and that patrons often order candy with their breakfast. Pie used to be a favorite breakfast dish, especially in New England, and candy is only a substitute
for pie as a dessert. — [Exchange.]

NORMAL GRADUATES PLACED

RESPONSIBILITY

One of the hardest things for the average man to do is to invest his surplus earnings.
Some of the best investment opportunities of the present day are found in the stocks of corporations which have been doing a steady and increasing business for a period of years, but,
which, because they occupy a more limited territory, are not as well-known as the great consolidated corporations.

When properly selected so that there is absolute certainty as to their basic soundness, the securities offered by such companies offer a better opportunity because the returns are larger than the usual run of listed stocks. It requires special training and skill, however, to pick out the permanently safe securities of this character, and an investment should never be made until a careful investigation has been made.

The 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Miller-Strong Drug Company

offers such an investment. Make a careful investigation of the company, its business and management—in short, learn the responsibility behind it.

COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETS.

Officials of American Legion hold
conference in Oneonta Tuesday.

A meeting of Otsego County committee of the American legion was held yesterday afternoon at the office
of the chairman, Dr. George W.
Augustin, in this city. All the members were present except the committeeman from Richfield Springs.
The first business of the meeting was the formulating of plans for the organization of posts in the communities around Edmeston, Worcester, Cherry Valley, Morris, Hartwick and Milford, and to induce them to come into the organization with the communities which already have posts.

Sheldon H. Close of this city was elected state committeeman from Otsego county, and a resolution was passed providing that the county convention be held at Cooperstown July 8 and 9.

A committee consisting of Dr. Atwell of Cooperstown as chairman and
the county executive committee and the presidents of the posts in the county was named to perfect arrangements.

There was also some discussion of the bonus plan, following the regular business, but no action was taken.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Oneonta Will Observe Day in Honor
of Irish Saint.

Today, St. Patrick's Day, is observed in honor of the Saint of that name,
who was born in Scotland, lived and died in Ireland some few hundred years ago, and who is proverbially
supposed to have driven the serpent
family from that country. His memory lives in all Christian countries
and his day is generally observed.

St. Patrick's day in Oneonta will probably be accompanied by rainy weather but this will not dampen the enthusiasm. Appropriate favors and post cards are displayed by local merchants and the windows are made gay with flowers. Tasty menus have been prepared at the hotels and patrons
will undoubtedly do them justice.

The theatres have arranged excellent programs. At the Oneonta theatre
"Hitchy Koo" will be presented, and
"In Old Kentucky" will be shown at the Strand. As is the custom, the day
will be observed socially with parties,
dinners and speeches.

Group Prayer Meetings.

The prayer meetings to be held in connection with the week of preparatory services (March 29—April 3) for communion on April 4th at the United Presbyterian church will be held tonight at the following homes: William Wright, 337 Main street, leader, Mr.
Oles; Mrs. Tamslett, 53 Ford avenue,
leader, Robert Hall; A. Hendry, 4 Franklin street, leader, Mrs. Birdsell;
Mrs. Charles Halcomb, 37 Fairview
street, leader, Mr. Caughey; W. H.
Hastings, 105 East street, leader, Mr.
Hastings.

Members of the congregation are
asked to note the prayer meetings
nearest their homes and make a special effort to attend these meetings.

A BATTLE WITH SNOW

COST OF EFFORT AND LOSS OF
TRAFFIC TO TROLLEY FUL-LY $30,000.

Trip Along North End of Trolley Road
Causes Oncontants to Wonder That Effort Was Made to Keep Road in Condition This Winter.

If the great number of Oneonta
citizens who think, after the winter's experiences, that they are qualified to join Herrieff's army of expert shovel-
ers, were to take a trip over the north end of the trolley road as did a party
of Oneontans yesterday as guests of Supt. George Killen, these candidates for honor as shovelers would be convinced, after seeing the immense snow
drifts through which the trolley officials and employees have forced their way during the winter months in efforts to keep the road in operation,
that after all their winter task resembles more the attempt of the small boy at a mid-summer ice cream festival to clean the affair out of stock
than it does a real battle with the snow.

From Richfield Springs to Henderson and beyond the road is almost
continuous succession of snow drifts,
the sight of which makes one wonder
that anyone ever had the temer-ity to attempt to open the road until
the summer sun has melted the drifts away and conditions were more favorable to operation. The ride from Oneonta to Richfield Springs was without incident of special note. Arriving at the latter place the party was joined by Walter Littell of the Cooperstown Farmer, C. E. Ackerly of the Richfield Mercury, John A. Losee, one of the representative men of that town, E. D. Conklin, general passenger and freight agent of the trolley line and
A. P. Zintmester of Herkimer, af-
ficial photographer of the trolley company.

There the party left the coach in which they had traveled and boarded
the big snow plow constructed at the company's shops to fight the snow.
Then the climb up the mountain commenced. Time and again the car stopped in the center of a big drift with the snow piled up on either side to a height that will not be estimated.
Sufficient is it to state that when the members of the party climbed to the top of the plow they seemed but little nearer the top of the drifts than when
on the ground. Well above the tops of the poles lining the roadway did the snow extend in many of these places
and were a pedestrian to meet a car
in one of these drifts while walking through it he might as well have been in a brick faced tunnel.

It was plainly evident that no plow
could have forced its way through
drifts of such size and when an explanation of how the tunnel had been made was asked, it was stated that shovelers by a succession of platforms, one above the other, much
after the fashion employed in digging
wells in former days managed to work
their way through the big drifts.

At one point where the Mohawk
state road crosses the trolley road-
way, a drift of great length is seen,
one that towers far above the cars
and trolley wires. Wonderment was expressed if the highway will be open
for motor traffic before the glorious Fourth. At the retaining wall the drift is perhaps the most stupendous.
There the poles and wires are completely hidden from view. The highways in this section are largely abandoned.

It is conservatively estimated that
the severity of the winter and the persistence with which one downfall
has followed another have cost the company in extraordinary expense attached to snow fighting and traffic lost
fully $30,000 — a sum inconsiderable sum for a project that at the best is not particularly remunerative. It is fortunate indeed for the various communities along this line that it is in the hands of men who know no obstacle when it comes to operation and
men who have labored so untiringly
to give service.

Numerous photos of the snow banks
and the roadbed, including the wash-
out near Waiman's on Fulmer creek
where ties spiked together were thrown out in the torrent and pulled
in under the undermined roadbed
with ropes to support the track, were taken during the day. These will latter be exhibited at The Star office,
where copies may be purchased by
those desiring them.

In the party on the trip from Oneonta were Mayor Ceperley, Aldermen
James O. Coy, C. S. Morris and W. F.
Tamslett, City Attorney Owen C. Beck-
er, City Clerk Sheldon H. Close, Police Commissioner H. W. Fluhrer, Public Works Commissioner B. E. Swart,
Secretary L. W. Walter of the Chamber of Commerce, Secretary R. B.
Colburn of the Merchants' association,
Edgar Bartlett and H. W. Lee of The Star.

DRIGGS GRANTED FRANCHISE

TO OPERATE MOTOR BUS LINE
ALONG RIVER STREET AND MAIN TO CHESTNUT.

Time Limit of Three Years and Other Restrictions Provided in Resolution
for Which All Vote Affirmatively—Plans for New Business Block Approved — Annual Report of City
Finances to Be Printed.

Matilda M. Driggs was granted a franchise to operate a motor bus line
on River street from the westerly limits of the city to Main street and thence to the corner of Main and Chestnut streets, at the regular meeting of the Common Council last evening, at which Mayor Ceperley and Aldermen Bolton, Coy, Clark, Morris and Tamslett were present, all aldermen voting affirmatively. The resolution was drawn by City Counsel Owen C.
Becker and was offered by Alderman Clark. It provides briefly that the franchise shall be for three years, but
be subject to revocation upon 90 days'
notice, that the grantee shall maintain a suitable and satisfactory schedule that embraces trips to the extreme
limits of the city at such hours as public needs require to serve the Nestle
plant, that it shall be operated in harmony with all ordinances of the city and the laws of the state, and that a suitable and commodious vehicle shall be provided at all times, and it be kept in a sanitary condition.

Attorney Bockes, who was present,
accompanied by Mr. Driggs, stated that the franchise as granted is satisfactory to the applicant and that it is the intention of Mr. Driggs to give it his personal attention and to secure an additional vehicle, so that one will be in readiness at all times.

Annual Report Ready.

City Chamberlain Bowdish submitted his annual tabulated report for the year 1919 and a resolution was passed directing that it be published in The Daily Star and in pamphlet form. The report discloses that the entire 1919
city tax has been collected, a condition that is very creditable to Mr.
Bowdish and the city. It will be given to the printers at an early date and published as soon as it can be gotten into type.

Plans for Business Block.

Messrs. Spencer and Palmer submitted plans for a new one story and
basement building which they propose to build at the rear of their present block at the corner of Main and Chestnut streets next to the LeReau
block, same to be eleven feet in width.
It was stated that the plans comply with the fire regulations and meet the approval of the fire chief and consent
to the erection of the building under
the usual conditions was granted.

Street Lights Voted.

Upon the recommendation of Chairman Tamslett of the light committee
new street lights were ordered placed
at the westerly end of Cozy avenue
and at the corner of Eighth and Hudson streets for both of which petitions
were recently presented. Mr. Tamslett
said he could not report favorably upon the request for a light at the corner of Sixth and Valleyview streets.
To this Alderman Clark objected, saying that the chairman of the committee should not arbitrarily act unfavorably, and that he believed lights were not asked for unless they are needed
and that they should be granted. Owing to a difference of opinion action
was deferred to permit each alderman
to personally inspect the conditions at the corner named.

The Lockwood-Tallett Bill.

Mayor Ceperley stated that he had received a long communication from
Mr. Capes of the Mayors' conference
calling attention to the Lockwood-Tal-
lett measure now before the legislature, which called attention to the arbitrary powers given boards of education, to the fact that it absolves their actions from any supervision or control by the city administration and
what are considered other obnoxious
features of the bill. City Attorney Becker was also heard upon the measure, he stating that after a hasty perusal, he is satisfied that it is a measure
that should be opposed. The communication was referred to the law committee and when its recommendation
is ready a special meeting will be called
to take action upon it.

Why People Come to Oneonta.

Like all other cities, it has its bad
and its good, but is more progressive
than other cities and has a larger proportion of the good. Radium is now used in Oneonta to relieve pain
and disease, and I safely and unselfishly help the little fellows to roll
lonesome small amounts up to millions of dollars, for homes and farms
and on easy payments. No wonder that people come to Oneonta to live.

HOW MANKIND MAY KNOW

That Christianity Is Real and Christ
Actually Saves.

The above was the theme of the
very impressive and interesting sermon delivered at the Slocum revival
services at the First Baptist church
last evening, at which a well filled auditorium gathered, including good delegations from the churches at West Oneonta and the Elm Park church of this city and numerous of the city
clergy. The music was praiseworthy
and is improving with each succeeding
service. The speaker's text follows:
If any man will do His will he shall
know of the doctrine and whether it be of God or of man. It was a powerful exposition of a very real and personal God.

This afternoon, at 3 o'clock, Mrs.
Arnold will conduct a bible study at the home of Mrs. George Wilson, at the corner of Maple and Center streets. All women are invited. This evening, at 6:30 o'clock, Rev. F. C.
Slocum will address the Yokefellows
at the Y. M. C. A. Tonight will be the Y. M. C. A. night at the revival services and it is hoped that many members of the association and other young men will be present. The meetings are deepening in interest and power and the appeals of Mr. Slocum
are receiving the commendation of his hearers.

MARRIAGES

Goodrich-Constable

Though occurring some time ago, only a limited number of the many friends of Lynn M. Goodrich of this city were until recently aware of his marriage to Miss Lena May Constable, which was solemnized on Friday, Feb. 5, at Walton. Rev. L. A. Bialy of that place was the officiating clergyman.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Constable of Walton, is a graduate of the Walton High school and a member of the Juneau Ladies' club of the Oneonta State Normal school. The groom, who is a lifelong resident of Oneonta, is a son of Mr. Lavena B. Goodrich of 52 Maple street. He was a student of the Oneonta High school and a graduate of the Albany Business college. He enlisted in the American army at the beginning of the war, was for 22 months overseas with the 11th Engineers, and is now in the employ of A. O. Ingraham of this city. The many friends of both will extend hearty if somewhat belated congratulations.

Official Visit to O. E. S.

Another one of the frequent pleasing social functions of Martha chapter, No. 116, O. E. S., was held last evening in Masonic hall, on the occasion of the official visit to the chapter of the district deputy grand matron, Mrs. Lavilla V. Jones, and the assistant grand lecturer, Joseph H. Brown. From 6 to 7 o'clock there was a reception for the honored visitors. As the hour of 7 approached, the tables were being loaded with good things, and all sat down to a dinner that satisfied everyone. The menu included roast lamb, mashed potatoes and St. Patrick salad, with the necessary incidentals. Attractive St. Patrick's day decorations were used to fine effect, and the programs were in the predominating color of green.

A business meeting followed the banquet, and at a late hour the large gathering broke up, after a most delightful evening's session.

Double Header at High School Tonight

Manager Martucci, of the All Stars basketball team, announces that there will be two games at the High School gymnasium tonight, to which all are invited; no admission is charged. The first game, which is called for 7:30, will be played between the All Stars and the Falcons, a first team from Norwich which has lost but three of the 22 games it has played thus far this season. Manager Martucci guarantees this to be a fast game and believes he will be able to carry off the honors.

In the second game, the All Stars will have as their opponents the Sidney Kassel mill employees. It will be remembered that each of these teams has won a game, and the rubber will be played off tonight. Manager Kassel of Sidney will bring a strong lineup here and will make the Oneonta boys work hard to win.

At the Woman's club, March 15, at 7:45 o'clock, Miss Esther M. Givens of the State Normal school faculty, will give a talk on Music Appreciation. The special topics to be discussed are "Form" and "Design" in music. The lecture will be illustrated by the use of familiar songs and records of various instrumental compositions. Club members attending the lecture are requested to bring copies of the hymn books "Guidance" and "Song" and of the familiar songs "Tenting Tonight" and the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." adv 2t

WATER IS RECEDING.

Is Lately Out of Streets at Davenport Center—Minor Mention.

Davenport Center, March 16.—The high water which for several days has rendered the streets of this village practically impassable, has now receded and the streets are entirely open to traffic. On the dirt road, however, near the residence of E. D. Seybolt, between this village and West Davenport, traffic is still impossible on account of the water. There has been no further rising of the creek on account of the thaw and rain today.

Minor Mention.

George Fox, who had been seriously ill at Schenectady, is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fox of this village. — Mrs. L. H. Chambers and three children from Ohio arrived in Davenport Center Friday, joining the former's husband, who took possession of the Hubbard farm on March 1. — Mrs. Mary D. Smith is quite seriously ill and is under the care of Dr. Craig of Davenport. — George H. Barlow Jr. of Binghamton came Tuesday to visit his grandfather, Mrs. J. M. Barlow, who is very ill at her home below the village. Dr. Mills of Oneonta attends here. — The village school has been closed the past week on account of high water.

Demonstration at Woman's Club.

On Tuesday afternoon, Miss Lucille Brewer of the State university at Ithaca conducted a demonstration of milk dishes to an interested audience at the Woman's club. Preceding the demonstration, Miss Brewer talked on the value of milk for small children. Following this, she described and illustrated the making of several varieties of cheeses, such as cottage, cream, etc.

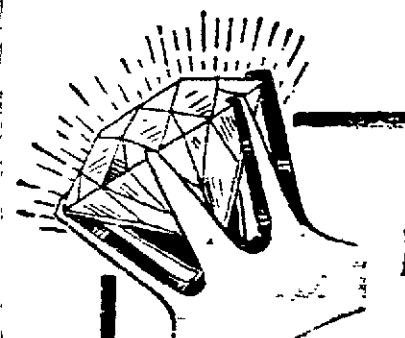

An especially good recipe follows for sweet milk cheese. Take 4 quarts of skim milk, 1 cup of sour milk and one eighth of a Junket tablet. Add the sour milk to the sweet and heat slightly, stirring at the same time. Dissolve the Junket tablet in a teaspoonful of tepid water, add it to the milk, stir, and set aside over night. Turn into a cloth and drain and then place in a bowl and add salt.

"HITCHY KOO" TODAY

At Oneonta Theatre With Dan Sherman and Other Well Known Stars.

The grand Hitchcock musical comedy "Hitchy Koo," with Dan Sherman and other well-known artists in the cast, will be the attraction at the Oneonta theatre today, matinee and night.

owing to the magnitude of the production, it is announced that the curtain will rise promptly at 2:30 and 8:15—and as one of the funniest "comedy" in the entire performance is said to take place in the midst of the theatre audience itself before the rise of the curtain, it behooves everybody to be seated on time.

There are 13 beautiful, dazzling scenes in "Hitchy Koo," in most of which the cutesy chorus of 16 "sweet sixteen" disport themselves merrily. While the youngsters are rushing out of one costume into another, the 15 clever principals of the company proceed by appearing before a tableau curtain, singly and in pairs, and doing the specialties which made them famous headlines in "big time" vaudeville.

Verily, it sounds like a fairly exciting and enjoyable evening.

The cast includes Stan Stanley, Artie Leeming and Vera Gray, Dan Sherman, Mabel DeForest, Juanita Cunningham, Frank Cornell, John Haw, Teresa Sherman, Helen Cornell, Jim DeForest, Geraldine McWilliams, Christine Mansfield, Lillian Washburn and a beauty chorus of 16 "sweet sixteen" Company's own orchestra.

The New Spring Fashions for Men are here, too

We are not to be disappointed in spring—it is here—and with spring comes all the beauties of the season. So the thoughts of youth lightly turn to a new suit or top coat.

It's a pleasure to show you the new models in men's clothing. They are strictly up-to-the-minute.

The materials and tailoring are better than you would expect to find at the price.

Ready-to-Wear Apparel for Women and Misses

There are so many points of attraction in this spring showing that we hardly know which to emphasize with most prominence.

Our collection of the new modes is sure to arouse an inordinate degree of admiration from women who have a well conceived appreciation of distinctive styling and good taste.

And then there is another very vital attraction—a price moderation very unusual when associated with such elegant styles and qualities.

LOOK OUT FOR POISON IN FOOD

Federal Food Officials Warn Consumers to Watch for Signs of Spoilage.

RIPE OLIVES KILL SEVERAL

Botulinus Poison Responsible for Fatalities—No Method of Preserving Food Found That Eliminates Occasional Spoiled Package.

Washington.—Botulinus poisoning, which recently killed six in one family in New York, is caused by eating spoiled food infected with the bacillus botulinus, say the officials of the bureau of chemistry, United States department of agriculture, who have investigated this and other poisoning cases in connection with the enforcement of the food and drugs act. In the New York case death was caused by botulinus poison in ripe olives. The olives remaining in the bottle in this case had an offensive odor. The same condition was found in the food in other cases investigated by the department. All spoiled food does not contain this poison, but any spoiled food, even though the spoilage be slight, may contain it, and for this reason, say the officials, all food showing even the slightest unnatural odor, unnatural color, swelling of the container, sign of gas, or any evidence of decomposition whatever, should be discarded.

Traces Poisonous Food.

The department of agriculture has used every possible effort and gone to the limit of its legal authority to remove all dangerous foods from the market by seizure under the food and drugs act, say the officials. Each time when botulinus poisoning has occurred food inspectors have traced through the channels of commerce the batch from which the poisonous food came and have used all measures under the law to remove it from the market. Samples from all other brands put out by the packer have been examined. Since the law authorizes seizure in such cases only when the foods are actually found to be decomposed or to contain poisonous ingredients, since only an occasional package in millions is infected with bacillus botulinus, and since it is physically possible to open and examine but a comparatively few of the millions of cans entering interstate commerce, it is beyond the power of the authorities to protect the public completely. For this reason they emphasize the necessity for scrupulous care on the part of persons opening and serving foods to discard anything which is spoiled. In products not obviously spoiled, if there is doubt in the recognition of the odor, proper to the product, thorough cooking will remove the possibility of danger from botulinus. If spoilage is apparent, destruction is recommended by the specialists.

Mystery About It.

Nobody knows just how the bacillus botulinus gets into any particular food. It has been found in articles put up in the home by the careful housewife and in goods packed in commercial establishments. It may be present in a few packages only of any lot. There is no method, the officials say, by which the packers or home canners can assure themselves by casual examination before canning that the product does not contain the bacillus botulinus.

If the food was in all cases properly sterilized and perfectly sealed, the development of the poison would be impossible, but no method of preserving food has yet been found, the specialists say, that eliminates the occasional spoiled package. Failure to sterilize may not become apparent for weeks, or even months after the canning of the article. If signs of spoilage have appeared when the can is opened, it is clear warning that the product is no longer edible. There is no greater probability of botulinus poisoning in olives than in many other food products, either commercial or domestic. Until this year it has been more commonly found in string beans, asparagus, and the like. It was originally found in sausage. It has been found in cheese; it is present sometimes in stock food, such as moldy hay and other kinds of spoiled forage, but it has never been found in the department investigations in any kind of food that was not spoiled.

NOTED FACTORY OPENS SOON

Famous Chauny (France) Mirror Plant Prepares to Operate Again.

Chauny, France.—The historic mirror factory established here by Jean Baptiste Colbert, famous minister of Louis XIV, which gave employment before the war to 2,000 employees, will resume operations within a short time. This information was given the correspondent of the Associated Press when he visited the quaint old town in the devastated regions of France, where he is observing reconstruction work under special arrangement of the French government.

In more recent times a chemical factory was established at Chauny, and this also is being rebuilt. It will supply employment for about 1,000 persons.

Both plants were heaps of stones and tangled masses of debris when hostilities ended.

Excess of Food Blamed.

Dr. Pritchard, an English practitioner, believes that most of the digestive troubles of infants and young children are due to excess of food. And besides the direct derangements of the stomach and intestines, there have an effect upon the whole system and may in the long run make it more susceptible to catching other diseases.

PADEREWSKI AT THE PIANO

Description of Great Master's Playing Well Called a Gem of Humorous Composition.

The death recently of Ed. H. Smith recalled the humorous editorials which made his little newspaper, the Chula News, noted. The one which first drew attention to it follows:

"We heard the Polander, Paderewski, play the piano in Kansas City last night. The fellow is deceitful. He makes you think all the time that he is going to play a tune, but he never does. He flirts all around a tune, but never touches it. His hair looks like a wig, but it isn't. He deceives you in a hundred ways. He makes the sweetest sounds you ever heard that were not a tune. He has his piano so trained that the doggone thing will keep right on playing when he is not touching it. He reaches out slowly and strokes it, drawing back his elbows like a man brushing a girl's hair. You see the moonlight and you're there with your girl, but somehow she don't love you. We know the sorrow of that, and that's why we don't like Paderewski. There are troubles enough in the world without hearing Paderewski. A man don't want to feel like he had thrown the mutilated remains of his grandmother in the sewer. If this is Paderewski's last visit to America we're glad of it. But we wouldn't take $100 for what we heard."

LOOKED AS IF HE KNEW

Good Reason Why Soldiers Urged Lieutenant to Take Military Policeman's Word for It.

A colored detachment under a white lieutenant was making its way through the shattered territory near Dunsmuir during the thick of the Argonne drive. At a crossroads it encountered a traffic-directing M. P. who halted the column.

"Sorry, sir," he said to the officer in charge. "You are not allowed up that road. We have information that it is about to be shelled by the enemy." The officer carefully examined his orders. "My instructions read differently," he declared. "I cannot believe that this is the road to be shelled. Have you any verification?" At this moment a shell burst within a hundred yards, tearing up the earth and sending debris flying in every direction. The entire landscape was obliterated, and a dead silence, broken only by the crash of falling stones, ensued. Then, out of a cloud of settling dust, arose one faint, terrified voice:

"For Gawd's sake, lieutenant, please take de gemmun's word 'fo' it!"—The Home Sector.

Business Welcomes Radio Circuits.

With the new radio circuits in operation between America and the far East, it is comforting to know, even if one has infrequent occasion to communicate with Japan, Hawaii and the Philippines, that the new service is considered quite reasonably inexpensive. One may communicate with Manila from the California stations for 6 cents a word, and with Hawaii for 8. Even if the rates were higher, however, the new circuits would be welcomed by American business interests, for the development of trade, as well as the transmission of news, has been seriously handicapped by lack of facilities for communication. The United States will get a better news service in consequence, do more business, and may feel also, according to naval officers, that the national defense system has been strengthened at a weak point.—Christian Science Monitor.

Airship Construction.

Some interesting facts regarding the work required in building a large modern airship are given in a recent issue of the Engineer, which states that the general problems of design are closely allied to those of naval architecture, although the airship designer must be a highly skilled mechanical engineer and also must have a knowledge of textile technology. For the work on construction, owing to the multiplicity of parts required, a very efficient shop organization is necessary. In a rigid airship structure, excluding the machinery, there are 20,000 different parts, a total length of structural material of 20 miles, 60 miles of wire and more than 2,000,000 rivets.

VILLAGE ELECTIONS HELD

UNADILLA "REVOLUTIONISTS" INSTALL FRED TABER AS PRES.

Largest Vote in Delhi Since Village Was Incorporated Century Ago—Results in Milford, Schenectady and Sidney.

In several villages of Otsego and Delaware counties, annual elections for village officers were held yesterday, and although in most instances they passed off quietly, yet in two cases—Unadilla and Delhi—great interest was aroused, and considerable feeling prevailed.

Revolution in Unadilla.

Unadilla, March 16.—Some time ago the good citizens of Unadilla met in joint caucus Democrats and Republicans alike, and nominated a bi-partisan ticket for village officers. The candidates then named were Frank M. Tyson, for village president, William G. Gorman, for trustee, A. E. Pixley, for treasurer, and Carl Vinton, for collector, and it was generally believed that the ticket as named would go through without opposition. So quiet, indeed, had been the situation that it was not until the election this afternoon, and men and women of the burg began flocking in numbers to the polls, that anybody not in the secret learned that anything was doing. That there was, however, was shown by the subsequent excitement, and by the canvass of the votes which disclosed that 196 ballots had been cast and that Fred Taber, politically a dark horse, had been elected president by a majority of 11 over the regular candidate.

There was no opposition to Messrs. Gorman and Pixley, who received practically the full vote, but the insurgent majority went out for collector, electing Mrs. Maggie Weidman, the present incumbent, to that position.

It is stated that the excitement in the Unadilla political tempest grew out of the fact that some time ago certain liberal-minded citizens who had been interested in the Liberty Loan work purchased the old Sperry mansion and announced their intention to have it used as a general community center, with rooms, among other things, for the village library and the American legion. In some way the report gained credence that it was the intention of the purchasers to have the village pay for it. Though this was not the case, it is believed to have sufficed to turn the tide of the election. Despite the excitement, the election was orderly and this evening all is quiet.

The Vote in Milford

Milford, March 16.—The election today passed off quietly, and the previously nominated ticket, consisting of O. A. Weatherly for president, E. O. Jewell, for trustee, F. L. Pratt, for treasurer, and Austin Cronkrite, for collector, was elected. There were 48 votes, the women casting their full share of them.

The resolution appropriating the sum of $5,000 for improving West Main street from the corners to the school house was carried by a vote of 44 to 4, and the regular appropriation for village expenses also carried.

Delhi's "High Brows" Defeated.

Delhi, March 16.—At the village election held here today for mayor and other officers, the largest vote ever recorded since Delhi was incorporated as a village in 1821 was cast. The caucus for the nomination of village officers not having been called within the legal time limit, no names were printed on the ballots and no designation could be given to the parties. It was thus necessary for the voters to write in the names of their candidates on the ballot. This fact, coupled with the disagreeable weather prevailing, ordinarily would keep away many citizens, and the fact that such a large number, 625, turned out indicates that there was great interest in the campaign.

Without the designation of any party names, the voters divided into two classes, generally known as "The Brows" and "The High Brows," and perhaps these humorous and original names were not inappropriate, as for several days previous to the election there was much knitting of brows as the merits and demerits of the various candidates were discussed.

The election itself passed off quietly and the result was accepted in a good spirit by all concerned, in true American fashion. The "High Brows" were defeated in all cases. Following is the result:

For President—Harrison Gray, 319; S. Porman Adee, 275.

For Trustee—Albert W. Dubben, 399; Helen Penfield, 151.

For Collector—Isabel Devier, 398; Lizzie Simmons, 152.

For Treasurer—Emma Wilson (no opposition).

For Street Commissioner—William L. Decker, 311; William McKee, 216.

Schenectady Band Voted $200.

Schenectady, March 16.—Seventy-three ballots were cast at the village election today for the following union ticket:

President—Floyd G. Manzer.

Trustee for Two Years—Clark Nesbit.

Treasurer—Charles Stever.

Collector—Mrs. Florence E. Bundy.

Weather conditions considered, the number of voters who turned out for the election is considered very gratifying. Several women were among those at the polls. On the question of appropriating $200 for the village band, to be used in providing concerts during the summer months, 58 votes were cast, 49 in favor and 9 against.

Rainy Day and All Sidney Out.

Sidney, March 16.—Though it was a rainy and generally disagreeable day in Sidney, there were 569 votes polled at the village election held this afternoon, fully one-half of them by women. In contrast to the excitement at Unadilla, the election was without any notable feature except the big vote. Only one ticket had been named, the candidates being R. W. Silver for president, W. E. Winsor and Ralph H. Loomis for trustees, Howard G. McLaury for treasurer and Elizabeth Leddy for collector. When the votes were counted it was found that Mr. Silver had received all the votes except one for president. There were a few scattered votes for all offices, and Paul Banner received about 40 votes for trustee in opposition to Mr. Winsor.

SAVAGE TRIBE ON TIBURON

"White Cannibals" Said to Inhabit Pacific Island Believed to Be Rich in Pitchblende.

Tiburon Island, in the Pacific, four miles off the Mexican coast, is inhabited by a tribe of "white cannibals" who are said to be descendants of the Dutch, Swedish and German prisoners who escaped from Mexican prisons several centuries ago. Yaqui Indians, who live on the mainland, call Tiburon the "Island of Death," for the reason that any person who lands on it is shot by poisoned darts and then eaten by natives, says an exchange.

In addition to poisoned arrows used by the natives the cannibals also use an ancient blunderbuss in attacking their victims. They are supposed to number from 500 to 2,000 persons. Of 18 persons known to have visited the island in the last few years, in parties of two and three, only nine are said to have returned alive, the others falling victims of the fawn-haired, blue-eyed "white Indians," as the Mexican people call them.

Tiburon is said to have rich deposits of pitchblende, from which radium is extracted.

The Last of Reasons.

The cartoonist who the other day, pictured "Wonder What a Prince Thinks About?" probably wasn't far wrong when he showed his subject rather bored with what he had to go through. Apropos, the story is told of a young prince of the Orient making many friends on the steamer which bore him to England, so that at the conclusion of the voyage these friends arranged a dinner in his honor in London. It was a smart affair and a fashionable company, but the prince did not put in an appearance.

The following morning the chairman of the committee asked him why he hadn't shown up. "I wasn't hungry," the prince answered simply and calmly.—Boston Transcript.
